PRESENTS FOR EVERYBODY!
NEGRO BOOKS AND PICTURES.

Works of Art and Poetry by Colored Artists.

In strictly Negro gifts made by Negroes and sold by Negroes and bought from Negroes, we lead in Greater Kansas City. How this should increase the pleasure of Christmas giving to the colored person to know that what is bought comes from colored labor and by colored people. What is more beautiful or useful than a good book by a colored author, a beautiful picture by a colored artist, or even a poem by a colored poet? We are bound to admit that we would have "color" if nothing else. Happily there is one place in town where these things can be bought—the League Enterprise, disseminators of Negro art and literature—offers values in this line that are really attractive. Some of the best ones are as follows:
"A Joyful Welcome Into Heaven," this week only $1.48; "A Mother's Love," $2.75; "Unforgotten Heroes," $2.50; "Eight Negro Men of Mark," 95c. (This splendid picture contains the likenesses of Washington, DuRoi, Dunbar, Taylor, Tanner, Duane, Douglas and noble Attorneys. This picture with or without frame). That one picture, "A Busy Day," 25 cents; Booker T. Washington photograph, 25 cents. Some of our books: Kelly Miller's "Race Adjustment," $1.98; "Out of the House of Bondage," $1.50; Booker Washington's complete works, any single volume, $1.50; "Masterpieces of Negro Eloquence," $2.45, and a year's subscription to the Crisis for 98 cents. Clever postcards with Negro subjects, two for 5 cents.
Note—Out of town patrons can take advantage of the above prices by sending 10 cents added postage.

THEY SAY
—That behind many a smiling face is an aching heart this Christmas.
—That a man can quit gambling and drinking as easily as anything else IF HE ONLY WILL.
—That the cold weather is driving the young fellows to the steam-heated cozy quarters of the Y. M. C. A.
—That everybody is looking forward to that big Christmas dinner that will be served in the Y. M. C. A. Cafeteria.
—That there are fewer Christmas weddings than ever before in the history of Kansas City. (Hard times).
—That it takes two plums to make a quart, but you can often get a "peck o' trouble" out of a half a pint—of bad liquor.
—That a dozen real good efficient stenographers and typists (not bluffs) could find quick and permanent employment with Negro professional men in this city.
—That a certain teacher said: "Oh, yes, I would like to get married but I hate to give up this salary." Well, girlie, "salary" is mighty good right now, believe me.
—That the following item of "society" news from Nick Chiles' Topeka Plaindealer has occasioned quite a bit of comment in this city: "Miss Jessie Bailey of 1707 East Thirteenth street, Kansas City, Mo., has a nice buffet flat and is doing nicely." Do you know what a buffet flat is, Nick? The Chief wants to see you.
